Foodstuffs—Transportation or Storage Under Insanitary Conditions Prohibited. (Ch. 12, Act Feb. 5, 1916.)

1. That it shall be unlawful for any person, firm, or corporation, or for any transportation company, express company, railroad company, or steamboat company, or any common carrier to permit insanitary conditions to exist in the transportation or storage of an article of food whereby such article of food may become contaminated from being so transported or stored in insanitary surroundings.

2. That the term "food" as used in this act shall include all articles used for food, drink, confectionery, or condiment, by man or other animals, whether simple, mixed, or compound.

3. That any person, firm, or corporation who shall violate any of the provisions of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine of not less than $5 nor more than $100 and costs of prosecution, or by imprisonment in the county or city jail not to exceed 90 days, or until such fine and cost are paid, or by both fine and imprisonment at the discretion of the court.

4. The dairy and food commissioner is hereby charged with the enforcement of this act, and he and his assistants or agents shall have full right to enter and inspect all stores, warehouses, freight or express cars, steamboats or steamships, trucks, drays, wagons, and any and all means or places of transportation or storage of articles of food; and any person, firm, or corporation who shall hinder or obstruct the dairy and food commissioner, his assistants, or agents in the discharge of the authority or duty imposed upon him or them by the provisions of this act shall be guilty of a violation of the same.

5. That whenever any article of food is transported or stored under insanitary conditions, the proceedings for the enforcement of the penalties and punishments fixed for violations of this act may be instituted and maintained in any county or city through which or in which such article of food has been or is so transported or stored under insanitary conditions as aforesaid.

Foodstuffs—Adulteration and Misbranding. (Ch. 422, Act Mar. 21, 1916.)

1. That section 7 of an act entitled an act to prevent the manufacture or sale of adulterated, misbranded, poisonous, or deleterious foods or liquors, and to repeal an act to prevent the sale of adulterated and misbranded foods in the State of Virginia, approved February 27, 1900, approved March 14, 1908, be amended and reenacted so as to read as follows:

SEC. 7. That the term "misbranded" as used herein shall apply to all articles of food, or articles which enter into the composition of food, the package or label of which shall bear any statement, design, or device regarding such article or the ingredients or substance contained therein which shall be false or misleading in any particular, and to any food product which is falsely branded as to the State, Territory, or country in which it is manufactured or produced.

That for the purpose of this act an article shall also be deemed misbranded:

First. If it be an imitation of, or offered for sale under the distinctive name of, another article.

Second. If it be labeled or branded so as to deceive or mislead the purchaser, or purport to be a foreign product when not so, or if the contents of the package as originally put up shall have been removed in whole or in part, and other contents shall have been placed in such package, or if it fail to bear a statement on the label of the quantity or proportion of any morphine, opium, cocaine, heroin, alpha or beta eucaine, chloroform, cannabis indica, chloral hydrate,
